Talking Points to Build a Strong Coalition

"The Golden Rule" encompasses many faiths:

Buddhist - Hurt not others in ways you yourself would find hurtful.

Christian - Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

Hindu - Do naught unto others which would cause you pain if done to you.

Jewish - What is hateful to you, do not do to your neighbor.

Muslim - No one of you is a believer until you desire for another that which you desire for yourself.
